Learning Objectives:

As a result of the participation in this activity, participants should be able to:

1. Cite the Constitutional and statutory provisions of the Florida Three Strikes Law.
2. Explain the three key concepts of the Florida Three Strikes Law.
3. Recognize the types of results from medical malpractice trials, arbitration, and agency actions that may result in a strike.
4. Define the term "physician" as used in the Three Strikes Law.
5. Define and discuss the terms, "medical malpractice" and "standard of care".
6. Identify and contrast a single incident of medical malpractice that may lead to a single strike and multiple incidents of medical malpractice that may lead to more than one strike.
7. Discuss the "clear and convincing evidence" standard necessary for an agency board to determine if the physician will receive a strike.
8. Relate the practical implications of the Three Strike Law based upon its history.
